

Reports Due Before the May 24, 2022, Primary Runoff Election

This notice only applies to candidates and committees that are involved in the primary runoff election

May 16, 2022: Runoff Report must be received by May 16.

May 15, 2022 to May 23, 2022 at noon: Period for filing for Daily Pre-Election Reports.

May 16, 2022: Runoff Report. Candidates in the primary runoff election must file a runoff report due eight days before the election. This runoff report must be received by the Texas Ethics Commission (TEC) by May 16. All political committees that accept political contributions or make political expenditures and/or have other activity in connection with the election are also required to file this runoff report. The first day covered by the report is February 20. The last day covered by the report is May 14.

May 15 – May 23, 2022: Daily Pre-Election Reports(s) For Contributions. The period for filing a daily pre-election report begins on May 15 and ends at noon on May 23. A filer may be required to file more than one daily pre-election report.

- Candidates and Specific-Purpose Committees: A candidate or specific-purpose committee that is involved in the primary runoff election and accepts political contributions from a single source that total more than $1,890 during the reporting period must file the daily pre-election report. A daily pre-election report must be received by the TEC by the first business day after the date of the contribution that causes the total amount accepted from a contributor during the period to exceed $1,890.
- General-Purpose Committees: A general-purpose committee must file a daily pre-election report if the committee is involved in the primary runoff election and if the committee accepts political contributions from a person that total more than $6,450 during the reporting period, or makes direct campaign expenditures supporting or opposing either a single candidate that total more than $1,890 or a group of candidates that total more than $28,330 during the reporting period. A daily pre-election report must be received by the TEC by the first business day after the date the contribution is accepted or the expenditure is made that causes the total amount to exceed the applicable threshold.

Further Information

Persons filing campaign finance reports with the TEC are required to file those reports electronically unless the person falls within the statutory exemption. Electronic reports must be filed by midnight, Central Time Zone, on the night of the filing deadline. Please refer to “Filing A Report” on our website for further information on electronic filing.